Ripley's newest business venture is Coffee on Main. A coffee and pastry shop has taken up residence on Main Street on the east side of Cooney's Island Ice Cream Shop. Long a dream of Joanne Barnhart and Rose Nuttall, they were able to open in mid-June after meeting the COVID-19 guidelines set by the State.

"We're excited to be here," said Joanne, "and we'll be expanding our menu as time goes on."

A limited lunch menu is already available, consisting of tuna, chicken salad, and egg salad sandwiches.

Best wishes ladies, and much success!

!!!WAY TO GO RIPLEY!!!

Two new businesses in town, during the coronavirus no less. We are so very proud of our community members.

Support our local entrepreneurs!

CONGRATULATIONS are in order for the Super Sisters Patricia Edwards and Nancy Goldstein. They have been running Wings & Things for quite some time and are now the new owners of Pizza on Main.

These two have worked very hard to maintain their business while giving back to the community. They deserve everyone's support as they move on with this business venture.

As we start this summer with a new norm, let's be safe. Let's show how New York can lead the way to being safe. We may not agree with everything, but at least it's working. Just maybe some people will wake up and see that we are right!

Don't forget to thank the heroes on the front lines, as well as our veterans.
