Advertising

The Bookworm and About Town are once again requesting a donation from our local businesses, and in return we will give you advertising space in the newsletters. Due to the pandemic, advertising was suspended because many of the businesses who helped contribute to our local library were unable to open.

With things slowly returning to normal, whatever normal will be, we are once again asking for your support. Through the December issue, businesses will be able to place an eighth page ad for only $5 per month. The amount of donation requested is much lower than any advertising you can buy, and our newsletters reach approximately 300 subscribers.

We thank you for your past support and look forward to working with you again.

P.S. If you, the reader, would like to donate and place a message of support, or encouragement, we would welcome your input!
