Tuesday, December 6th @ 6pm &

Friday, December 16 @ 11am

Molly Harvey, a SNAP-ED Nutritionist from the Cornell Co-Op Extension, will be at the library to show us meals you can make from items that you receive from the mobile food pantry and more. Molly has taught several classes at the library and is always a delight. Her dishes are delicious, and her handy tips will help you serve healthier meals. Mark your calendars!

Christmas Craft!

Ripley Library will hold a Craft session on December 17th at 9:30 am. We will be creating festive centerpieces for your holiday tables or wreaths for the spirit of the season. There will be NO charge for this craft, but you must register ahead of time as seating is limited to ten people.

Author's Night

Tuesday, December 13th @ 6p.m.

The newly released book, Musings, will be the featured book for the December Author's Night.

This is a collection of poetry and art by Robyn Albright, David Hawker, and Mary Ellen Humphrey.

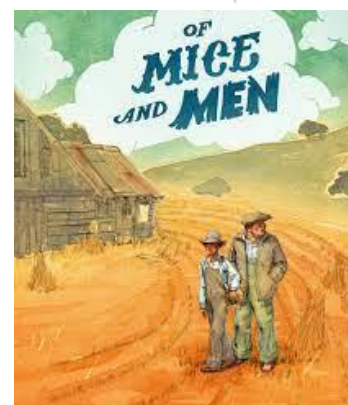

Poetry is everywhere; in the songs we sing, the emotions we feel, the sway of the trees, a warm summer day or a dazzling sunset. Oftentimes we cannot express the poetry that lives within us, but every once in awhile, it comes flowing out.

These authors have distinctively different styles which makes this collaboration even more interesting. Come hear them speak about their book and get your signed copies.

Lost, Never to Return?

Since 2018 over $5,000 worth of books have not been returned to the Ripley Library! That's a lot of investment, GONE!

Ripley Library runs on a tight budget and part of that budget is buying books for our patrons to enjoy.

The library's new policy is no fines for late returns, unless the fines add up to $10 or more, then you may not borrow any books from the library system until the book(s) is returned, but the library will even waive THAT fee if you just return the books you borrowed.

We understand: life happens. You moved things around, you let a friend read the book you borrowed, you hid the book from your spouse and/or kids... hopefully the dog didn't eat it. Whatever happened, we forgive you! Please look around and if you find one of these lost books, please return it. No questions asked, no penalties levied.

Speaking of Lost Books...

Received in the mail recently, in an unmarked, unaddressed envelope, was Tsars, Mandarins, and Commissars, A History of Chinese Russian Relations by Harry Schwartz!

This book was printed in 1964, and it's marked as belonging to the Ripley Library, but there is no record of it being checked out, presumably because it was so long ago!

THANK YOU to whomever returned this book, although you needn't have been so secretive. It does make us wonder, however, what those comrades have been up to since 1964!

From the Director's Desk

By Rhonda Thompson

Happy December!!! I can hardly believe we are at the end of another year. Just a couple of months ago we were busy crocheting sea life for the Summer Reading Program. Suddenly, it is Christmas time and we are smack dab in the middle of our Annual Auction.

With all the busyness going on, please do not forget your local library. We are still here bringing many great activities and fun things to do. We cannot do this without your continued support. Presently, we have our Annual Auction going with over 100 items listed with something for everyone. Don't be shy about using the computer, we are here to help you with that. You will discover how much fun it can be to go on there and bid.

Please do not forget Christmas in Ripley Day, December 10th. The Lady's Auxiliary works especially hard to bring Mr. and Mrs. Claus along with all the gifts to your children. Several organizations work together to make your day in Ripley very special. Please come out and take part in it. Here at the library we will be hosting the Vendor Fair. Support these local folks and use this opportunity to get some very unique gifts for your loved ones. I am not sure where we will fit in the Christmas Readings, but rest assured we will figure it out. We just cannot have Christmas at the library without the "Cajun Night Before Christmas." This is going to be a great day at the library. We will have the vendor fair, the auction, Chinese auction, readings, and also a bake sale and raffles. Please come prepared for a marvelous Christmas Time.

Looking for something fun to do, attend the Sip-n-Paint on Saturday, December 3, 2022 from 5-7pm. Rachel Wilson will return to the library to show us how to paint "Christmas in the Forest". If you have been to the library, you will have seen this painting on display and know that it is perfect for any wall at Christmas.

We will also be having an Ugly Sweater Contest for those who come to paint. The winner will be judged by the participants. The winner will receive a free picture previously painted by Rachel. So, don your old ugly sweaters and come on out for a really fun time.

As this year comes to an end, remember to enjoy the little things and not stress the things that cannot be changed anyway. This is a time for joy and happiness. If you start to feel a little blue, come on out to the library and we will cheer you up. The library is the perfect place for everyone. See you there.

AMONG FRIENDS

Happy Holidays! So much excitement is happening at the library. The Annual Online Auction has begun with roughly 100 items to choose from. Please be sure to sign up as a bidder even if you don't wish to bid on anything. And be sure and tell family and friends to check it out!

On December 10th, the library will sponsor a Vendor Fair in conjunction with the Christmas in Ripley events. The BFF group will hold a bake sale along with a raffle. Friends' elves are needed to bake and help with the tables. We also need volunteers to help people sign up for the online auction. Mark your calendars now!

There will be a get-together at our regularly scheduled meeting on December 17th at 11 am - just a nice time for the Best Friends to grab a bite to eat and enjoy each other's company. Lunch will be provided.

Benefits of Reading:

There's nothing like the smell of old books or the crack of a new one's spine. (Plus, you'll never run low on batteries.) As it turns out, diving into a page-turner can also offer benefits for your health and happiness. Although more and more people own e-books, it seems safe to say that real books aren't going anywhere yet, and these benefits of reading are here to stay. Every month we'll tell you about another benefit of reading, for yourself or to your children.

The Joy of Reading...

starts young.

For the next several months we will be featuring someone, be they old or young, reading! We invite you to send in a photo of someone you love, either reading or being read to. Can't wait to see your entries!

Reading Sets a Positive Example

Reading is a key component of early literacy development and you can set an example of just how crucial this is by modeling the behavior yourself. Children are excellent at mimicking the adults around them which means that if you regularly set aside some "me time" for reading, your children will learn to do the same.

River reading Goldilocks

~~FINES~~

No more late fees on overdue books starting immediately!

However—if fines would have accumulated to $10, or if the book is lost or damaged, the library must be reimbursed for the cost of the book.

Friday Night movies will return in January!

Ripley Public Library Has Become a Safe Place Location

What is a Safe Place Location, you might ask. A Safe Place works with the Safe House out of Jamestown and is part of Chautauqua Opportunities, Inc. This is a program for runaway or homeless youth under the age of 18. If this youth needs help, all they do is enter the facility displaying the yellow sign that reads SAFE PLACE. They let someone in charge know they need help. The person in charge will contact the Safe Place Agency and someone will come out. This counselor will talk with the youth, provide shelter and transportation if necessary.

Stop into the Library for more information or pick up a brochure.

Community Table

The Ripley Public Library welcomes community groups who would like to set up a table in our lobby to promote their business or group. Examples: VFW Poppy sales, Girl Scout cookie sales, as well as distribution of pamphlets or information about your group or activity. The library staff will not be responsible for the manning of these tables, and the table cannot be left unattended. A representative for the table must be present for items to be displayed.

Reservations must be made to establish specific dates and times. There is no cost, it's just our way of giving back to the community. 716-736-3913

Food Pantry at 14 North State Street is open Tuesdays 2-4p.m. and Saturdays 10-12 noon. See information in About Town for eligibility or call Phil Chimera at 716-969-8344.

LIBROS NUEVOS EN ESPAÑOL NEW BOOKS IN SPANISH

Recent visitors to the Ripley Library took full advantage of the children’s area, playing games, putting puzzles together, and reading.

“We don’t have libraries like this where we are (Niagara Falls). This is really nice!”

Those were just two of the compliments paid by our guests. Stop by and see if you don’t agree!

Would you like to show your support for the Ripley Public Library in a tangible way? A $5 per month donation will give you space for a personal message or business card in The Bookworm, letting people know you are helping to make our library great!

You can scan a business card or write a message and send it to:

thebookworm14775@gmail.com and checks can be made to Ripley Public Library, P.O. Box 808, Ripley, NY 14775. Call the library at 716-736-3913 to arrange drop off.

Thank you for being there for your Ripley Library!

DONATIONS!

As you know, the Ripley Library has been undergoing some major changes over the past two years. More is needed, however. The goal is to make our library a true community center with meeting rooms, private office rental spaces, and banquet facilities. Grants supply most of the monies needed for these projects, but matching funds are required as well.

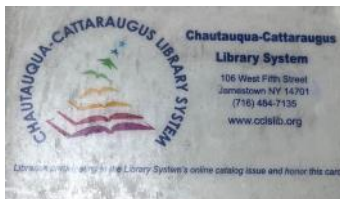

We are currently raising money for much needed new bookshelves.

That's where you come in! Please consider making a donation to make this happen!
