Plant Sale May 27

The Ripley Library will be holding its annual plant sale on May 27th. Now is the time when we turn to our neighbors and friends, asking you to germinate seeds (both vegetable and flowers), along with cutting clippings of your houseplants and other protected plants, and donate them to the library.

This is a great way for you to increase the variety of flowers and vegetables in your home while helping your local library with this worthwhile fundraiser. We ask that everyone maintain the growth of their plants at home until roughly one week before the Plant Sale.

We thank you for your participation and for your library support. Any questions, call the library at 716-736-3913.

Belly Up To the Bar Winner!

The winner of the Belly Up To The Bar contest in April was Bobbie Jo Soden with her Double Dark Chocolate Raspberry Bars.

Just in case you missed it, here's her recipe!

Double Dark Chocolate Raspberry Bar

1-15oz chocolate cake mix
1/2 cup oil
2 room temperature eggs
1 Tbls. Vanilla
1 cup dark chocolate chips
1/4—1/2 cup raspberries, crushed with 2 Tbls sugar mixed in

Mix all ingredients together with a spatula. Press down into a greased 8x8 inch pan.

Bake about 20-25 minutes or until toothpick come out dry. Sprinkle more chips on top while still warm and spread the melted chips.

Topping:

1-6 oz cream cheese
1/2 stick butter
1 cup Powdered sugar
1/2 cup raspberries

Mix and spread when bars are slightly cooled.

Do NOT cut before cooled completely. They will not turn out if you do!

Bobbie Jo Soden

Nutrition with Molly

Tuesday, May 9th @ 6 pm

Thursday, May 18th @ 11am

Molly Harvey, a SNAP-ED Nutritionist from the Cornell Co-Op Extension, visits the Ripley library twice a month to share recipes that are not only yummy, but healthy and inexpensive. Taste testing is always a component of her visits, and oftentimes she brings little goodies such as insulated grocery bags, measuring spoons, or refrigerator temperature indicators. If you've never been, give it a try. Each session is different and always a rollicking good time!

Friday Night Movie Now Showing

Friday night movie for May is cancelled due to set-up for the Vendor/Craft Fair.

See you in June!

Ripley Public Library Has Become a Safe Place Location

What is a Safe Place Location, you might ask. A Safe Place works with the Safe House out of Jamestown and is part of Chautauqua Opportunities, Inc. This is a program for runaway or homeless youth under the age of 18. If this youth needs help, all they do is enter the facility displaying the yellow sign that reads SAFE PLACE. They let someone in charge know they need help. The person in charge will contact the Safe Place Agency and someone will come out. This counselor will talk with the youth, provide shelter and transportation if necessary.

Community Table

The Ripley Public Library welcomes community groups who would like to set up a table in our lobby to promote their business or group.

Examples: VFW Poppy sales, Girl Scout cookie

sales, as well as distribution of pamphlets or information about your group or activity. The library staff will not be responsible for the manning of these tables, and the table cannot be left unattended. A representative for the table must be present for items to be displayed.

Reservations must be made to establish specific dates and times. There is no cost, it's just our way of giving back to the community. 716-736-3913

Among Friends

BFFs

It was great to see two new faces at our last meeting. The Friends are once again busy with upcoming plans. May 27th brings the Vendor/Craft Fair along with our Plant Sale. Bring your plant donations the last week in May. Food will be available for purchase, also. Reminder: gather up your costume jewelry to donate for our costume jewelry auction to be held on July 29th.

The Friends purchased a new Heat Press to work in conjunction with our Cricut. Look for many new and exciting items at the library. Won't you join us at our next meeting, May 20th at 11pm? Hope to see you there!

Lost, Never to Return?

The holidays are over, you've got time on your hands. Please look for any books you may have taken from the library and forgot to return!

$5,000 in books have disappeared from the Ripley Public Library. That's a lot of money. If you find books that need to come home, no questions asked, no fine levied, just return them either in person or drop them in the drop box on the west side of the library building.

FINES

No more late fees on overdue books starting immediately!

However—if fines would have accumulated to $10, or if the book is lost or damaged, the library must be reimbursed for the cost of the book.

From the Director's Deck

By Rhonda Thompson

Happy May!!!

This is the month to enjoy flowers and the summer season gets started with Memorial Day. Another thing to get moving with Memorial Day weekend is our Craft, Vendor and Plant sale. Be sure to come on Saturday, May 27th and support the vendors in our area. There are going to be some really great vendors and we will have food for purchase as well. It's a great opportunity to support the library, the local vendors, purchase some goodies, eat some great food and have an all-out good time. The library provides a great venue for you to do your shopping all in one place. It is a modern Medieval Faire inside. Be sure to come out and enjoy.

May is also Diversity Month. This is a time to recognize all of our differences and adopt what we can to make our lives stronger and richer. Together we can do anything; separated, we flounder.

Our Friends' group has a couple more active members. We could use your volunteer help to make programs possible for the community. We have a great Program Director who can get many things going, but we need help putting these ideas into action. We are always looking for new ideas to bring to everyone!

Another Sip-N-Paint night is scheduled for June 3rd from 5-7. These events are really fun! Please try to join us for Rendezvous at Sunset. I am letting you know now so you will have time to plan for this. Just so you know, younger kids are welcome too. My granddaughter loved it.

Most of all, what I want to pass on to you is, please come out to the library and take part of the programs and services we offer. Remember, we are much more than just books.

See you at the library,

Upcoming Events!

May 2nd—It's Clean This Shed Out day! Volunteers needed to sort through and dispose of no-longer-wanted items in the library storage shed. Stop by, beginning at noon and give a hand! (Rain date May 9th)

June 3rd—Spring Cleaning at the Library, 9am til 2pm. Wash windows, dust shelves and books. Vacuum rugs. Wash baseboards. Sounds like fun, doesn't it!? Not if just one person (the library clerk) has to do it all alone. Come join the fun and help spruce up the library!

June 29th—Cruise In happens! The whole town will be involved in this great get-together, including the library. Look for details on Yard Sale, Jewelry raffle (GREAT event last year!), and refreshing fruit for sale in front of the library.

Seed Catalog in the works. A program whereby you can donate seeds from your flowers or vegetables, and get seeds from other plants is in the works. It's never too late to start saving seeds from your plants. What a great way to increase your gardens at no cost! Watch for future details.

Library Budget Vote May 18

The upcoming proposed budgets votes for Ripley Central School and Ripley Public Library are coming up May 18th. Voting takes place at the school.

The library is in great need of the increased budget. Last year's increase was never collected, therefore the library has been working with a shortfall. Rhonda Thompson, our librarian, is really good at pinching pennies, but there aren't any pennies left to pinch these days. We need the community's support to finish the building projects that are only partially done, and to just pay the bills.

Why do we need a library in Ripley? The library is rapidly becoming the center for pre-teens to meet and stay occupied with safe, wholesome activities. The library is a center for exercise groups, sewing groups, quilting groups, writing groups, nutrition information, and community meetings. And hey! There are even books at the library that can be checked out—for free!

Repeating History at Your Local Library

By Robyn Albright

Last month I shared some of the wealth of historical information housed here at the library. While looking for information for this month's newsletter, I was taken with the list of people who participated in the Ripley Literary Society. It's a veritable Who's Who in Ripley's history. I thought it might be interesting for some of you to see the names of Society members and perhaps find an ancestor you didn't know you had! To wit:

1893 Members List:

Miss Bertha Bennett
Mrs. Lyanau (?) Bennett
Miss Nettie Bustou
Mrs James Burrows
Mrs Julia Brown

Mrs Emma Collins

Mrs Emma Daughaday
Mrs Nellie Dickson

Miss Lou Frances

Miss Effie Hildred
Miss Emma Hall
Mrs. W. A. Holcomb
Mrs. R. A. Holcomb
Mrs. N. J. Horton
Mrs. Hervey Hall
Mrs. Lydia Hamilton
Mrs. Augusta Hunt

Mrs. E. T. Kingsley

Miss Jennie Loomis
Miss Grace Lombard

Mrs. J. A. McGinnies
S. E. McGinnies

Flora Mason
J. Mahle

Louise Northam

Maria Outhank

E. C. Porter
Hannah Pelton

Nelson Randall
Fred Randall

Priscilla Shaver
Walter Stevens

Lida Thompson
Edith Thompson

J. M. Wethy
T. J. Walker
Emma Williams

I apologize for any misspelled names. Although the penmanship of the 1800s was far superior to our own, many of the letters are hard to distinguish. In addition, the first half of the names were designated as "Mrs. or Miss," while the second half of the names omitted the distinction.

If you know of any corrections, by all means, let me know!

Another note: notice any familiar street names within this group? These were influential families in early Ripley history!

WANTED!

Local Authors

Ripley Library is looking for local authors who would like to join us for our Local Author's night. We invite published (including self-published) writers to come and speak to our audience, telling us a little bit about yourself and your book. This is generally followed by a Q&A period and a book signing. Call the library now and we'll set up a date. 716-736-3913

Poetry Night

Poetry Night is always a lot of fun here at the Ripley Library. People are invited to come read their original poems, or that of their favorite poet. Poetry night in April was no exception. Five local poets came to share their creativity! Thanks to all of you!

Summer Reading

July 1—August 26

Pass the word! The Summer Reading Program will be filled with two months of fun, excitement and lots of reading for kids and adults alike!

Come exercise your brain with some word challenges and games, as well as reading!

Win great prizes!

This year's theme is

Kindness, Friendship and Unity!

Random Acts of Kindness:

In our everyday active lives, we need to take the time to share some kindness. Think kind thoughts for Spring.

Spend time playing with your pet

Say Good Morning to someone

Make someone laugh

Pick up trash that you find lying on the ground

Put a positive note in a library book
